We are already worthy. We deserve work that is both fulfilling and pays well, without toxicity and trauma. We deserve time with our families, flexible schedules, and naps.

Hey there! Meet Cristin Downs. Fierce, funny, and fired up, Cristin is a possibilitarian. Also an executive coach, a theatrical thinker, a producer, and a lot of formers – stage manager, production manager, operations manager, general manager, director, continuing/adult/corporate education professional (a multi career pivoter)– who has worked more than 40+ jobs and led more teams in 2 decades than most people will in their entire lives. Cristin is the founder of Your Notable Life where she helps compassionate leaders get a seat at the table or build their own. A tireless advocate for work separated from our inherent worth and identity, Cristin specializes in voice, values, vision, and visibility. She believes that we are each notable, just as we are, and we get free together.

Cristin has a combined social reach of over 20K and her podcast was featured on NPR's The Big Listen.
